

ARMORY DANCE ENDS IN BATTLE AMONG SOLDIERS

Women See Blows Struck, and Then Private Is Arrested on Sergeant's Complaint.

A battle was a feature of a dance at the Ninth Regiment Armory, Fourteenth street, near Sixth avenue, last night, when trouble arose between Thomas Lewis, a private of the Ninth Regiment, who lives at No. 48 East One Hundred and Fourth street, and Sgt. John Brown of No. 78 Trenton avenue, the Bronx. Many women were present when blows were struck, and finally Lewis was arrested on Brown's complaint and charged with disorderly conduct.

In the Men's Night Court Brown said Lewis had used abusive language and struck at him. The sergeant said he had tried to stop the private from fighting. Lewis said that he had been punched in the face by another man during the melee. He pointed out a sergeant from the regiment who was in court who, he said, had struck him. The man accused denied it. Lewis had a blackened eye and showed other signs of having been in a mixup.

Magistrate French deferred sentence until to-night, and asked that the military law be looked up to see whether the case could not be thrashed out in a military court rather than a police court. Lewis was sent to a cell in the mean time.

POLICEMAN STOPS PANIC WITH PISTOL

Threatens to Shoot Any Who "Rush" in Escaping From Theatre Affire.

The energetic action of Policeman Thomas Welsh stayed a panic at Al-pine Hall on Cortlandt street, Tarrytown, last night. There were about three hundred and fifty men, women and children in the place seeing a moving picture show when a film caught fire.

Every one jumped up and ran for the doors. Welsh drew his revolver and shouted: "I'll shoot the first man that tries to rush."

His threatening manner and words had an instant effect on the crowd and the stampeding and shouting stopped, all moving quietly out of the building.

Firemen put out the blaze before much damage had been done.

FORMER JOCKEY HELD AS FOOTPAD; WOMAN ROBBED

Cameron Flynn Blames "Fool Racing Bill" for Putting Him Out of Work.

Policemen Haggerty and Smith were at East Ninety-seventh street and Third avenue early to-day when a man came tearing down the avenue. They ran after him as he turned into Ninety-sixth street and nabbed him half way down the block. Just before they arrested him they saw he threw a woman's empty purse into an airway.

They took him back to Third avenue, and on the way to the One Hundred and Fourth street station met Mrs. Mary Lackman, of No. 108 East One Hundred and Second street, who said she had been assaulted on Ninety-eighth street, knocked down, and robbed of her purse containing $15. She identified the purse as hers, but could not identify the man.

Mrs. Lackman had been carried past her station while on her way home on the Third avenue elevated and was walking back. She said the man who had struck her on the head from behind had used his fist. She was not injured.

At the station house the man said he was Cameron Flynn, twenty-five, of No. 850 East One Hundred and Sixty-first street.

"I'm an ex-jockey," he said, "but there ain't been any regular work for us jockeys since this fool racing bill went into force. I worked for the training stables of Thomas Welsh and John Hyman, and they had some heavy mounts in my day, but that's all done and over."

Banish Catarrh

Breathe Hyomel for Two Minutes and Stuffed Up Head Will Vanish

If you want to get relief from catarrh, cold in the head or from an irritating cough in the shortest time, breathe Hyomel (pronounce it High-ome). It will clean out your head in two minutes and allow you to breathe freely awake or asleep.

Hyomel will end a cold in one day, it will relieve you of disgusting sniffles, hawking, spitting and offensive breath in a week.

Hyomel is made chiefly from eucalyptus, a soothing, healing, germ killing antiseptic, that comes from the eucalyptus forests of inland Australia, where catarrh, asthma and consumption were never known to exist.

Hyomel is pleasant and easy to breathe. Just pour a few drops into the hard rubber inhaler, use as directed and cure is almost certain.

A complete Hyomel outfit, including inhaler and one bottle of Hyomel, costs only $1.00 at druggists' everywhere. If you already own an inhaler you can get an extra bottle of Hyomel at druggists for only 50c.

To break up a cold in the head or chest over night, try this just before retiring: Into a bowl three-quarters full of boiling water pour a teaspoonful of HY-OMEL, cover head and bowl with towel and breathe for five minutes the antiseptic, healing vapor that arises.
